

ONLINE RETAILER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

An online retailer is defined as any retailer who offers products for sale to end consumers through commercial website(s) and is supposed to be compliant to the following rules of engagement:

1. Retailer must indicate its intention to become an online retailer at the time of placing the first order.
2. The AM logo, registered trademarks and any copyrighted images and/or text may only be used on websites which are owned by, and under the full control of the online retailer.
3. The promotion of AM items by indirect online channels like Amazon, EBay, etc. is not allowed without clear, written and upfront approval of AM which shall only be provided if and as long as retailer restricts the promotion to its own country and doesn't provide discounts.
4. All websites are subject to constant approval by AM. Retailer may only use images and/or text to offer AM product that has either been approved and/or provided by AM.
5. Retailer must comply with established AM order and drop ship guidelines. AM shall not provide cross border drop shipment service.
6. AM reserves the right, due to production and availability, to restrict the sale of certain products.
7. Retailer will not publish nor provide AM contact information, such as addresses or telephone numbers, to end consumers. The retailer shall conduct all end consumer customer service issues directly with AM.
8. Return labels will only be sent to AM's retailer, not directly to the end consumers. It is the retailer's responsibility to facilitate the return via an AM issued return label.
9. Retailer must remain in good financial standing with AM at all times.

The decision to grant online dealer status is at the sole discretion of AM. AM reserves the right to refuse orders or terminate dealer status of retailers who do not comply with these terms and conditions.
